Female farmers, whether farming on their own or in a partnership, realize the importance of the business side of farming. Annie’s Project provides training in five areas of agricultural risk management: financial, marketing, production, legal, and human resources. Most importantly, women are able to network and develop relationships with other women in agriculture.

Pre-registration is required by September 28th, 2018. Registration fee is $100/per person and includes all materials and dinners. Registration limited to 25 women. Make checks payable to OSU Extension, and mail to Portage County Extension office, 705 Oakwood St., Suite 103, Ravenna, OH 44266. If you have any questions, please call 330-296-6432.
