Learn from practitioners growing co-op culture in central Appalachia!

Dr. J. Todd Nesbitt, Lock Haven University, will share “A Case for Economic Distributism in West Virginia.”
Leslie Schaller, Casa Nueva, will discuss “Building a Worker-Owned Business in Central Appalachia.”
Ursulette Huntley and Gail Patton, Unlimited Future, will share “Catalyzing a Community Owned Business.”
Join discussions about growing co-ops in our region and creating the Appalachia Cooperates Initiative.
Learn about worker-owned co-ops across the globe with a lunchtime showing of the film Shift Change.
