

Soilless Strawberry School

*Greenhouse-focused Track

Photo by M Horvat (December, 2020)

Learn all you need to grow strawberry in soilless substrates under greenhouse and high tunnel conditions!

Date: Friday March 26th, 2021
10AM – 3PM (EDT)

Online live lectures and discussion on March 26th
Recordings will be available for additional 2 weeks

Registrations fees: $180 per person
Ohio resident discount available (please contact Chieri Kubota)

More information

Register by 3/23/21

Contact for your questions: Chieri Kubota (kubota.10@osu.edu)

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF FOOD, AGRICULTURAL, AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

Soiless Strawberry School

*Greenhouse-focused Track

Friday March 26th 10AM - 3PM (Live lectures and discussion)

10:00 - 10:30 AM	Introduction and cultivars
10:30 - 11:00 AM	Planting materials and physiology of flowering
11:00 - 11:30 AM	Planning your planting date and finishing date
11:30 - 12:00 PM	Break
12:00 - 12:30 PM	Nutrient solutions, substrates
12:30 - 1:00 PM	Environmental conditions and benchmark yields
1:00 - 1:30 PM	IPM, plant management, environmental disorders
1:30 - 2:00 PM	Break
2:00 - 2:30 PM	High tunnels basics and tabletop management
2:30 - 3:00 PM	Discussion

After March 26th through April 10th

All lectures will be available from your password protected OSU course website

Instructors:

Dr. Chieri Kubota
Ohio CEA Center

Mark Kroggel
Horticulture and Crop
Science

Brad Bergesford
OSU South Centers

Thomas Harker
OSU South Centers

There will be another workshop with a 'High tunnel focused track' as a separate event (information will become available soon)*